(1) Government Order No FD (Spl.) 446 PEN 64, dated 15th December 1964.
(2) Government Order No. FD (I) 68 OAP 69, dated 3rd December 1969.
(3) Letter No. RB/ACT/SR IV/459, dated 20th November 1973, of the Divisional Commissioner, Belgaum.

PREAMBLE.—

1. The Old age pension scheme is a social security measure introduced by Government to help destitutes. The power to sanction old age pension has been delegated to the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts in Government Order No. FD (I) 68 OAP 69, dated 3rd December 1969.

2. The Divisional Commissioner, Belgaum Division, in his letter at (3) above has said that for the speedy disposal of applications for the grant of old age pension, this power may be delegated to the Assistant Commissioners of the Sub-Divisions. The Assistant Commissioners are responsible Officers who have been delegated with the powers of the Deputy Commissioners in regard to many items of work and if they are empowered to sanction old age pensions, this will ensure quick disposal of pending applications.

ORDER No. FD (VII) 16 OAP 73, BANGALORE DATED THE 21st JANUARY 1974.

The above recommendation has been carefully considered. Government are pleased to delegate to the Assistant Commissioners of Sub-Divisions the power to sanction old age pension which is now being exercised by the Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,

Karnataka State Lottery—Sale of Lottery Tickets of Sikkim Government in Karnataka State on Reciprocative Principle—orders regarding.

READ :—

1. Letter No GAN/3/551/6/70 dated 2nd September 1971 of the Counsellor and Financial Adviser, India House, Gangtok, Sikkim.
2. Notification No 100 Customs F. No. 406/10/72-Cus. III dated 26th August 1972 of the Government of India, Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue and Insurance).

PREAMBLE :—

In his letter read at (1) above, the Counsellor and Financial Adviser, India House, Gangtok, Sikkim has intimated that Government of Sikkim freely allows the sale of tickets of lotteries organised by the States in India and the absence of reciprocal arrangement for the sale of Sikkim Government Lottery Tickets in this State has been a source of embarrassment. In their notification read at (2) above, the Government of India have amended the relevant provision of the Customs Act, 1962 making room for the free movement to Sikkim of all tickets, coupons, advertisements, posters, handbills, lists of prize winners or other documents relating to a lottery organised in India by the Government of a State and have desired that the Government of Karnataka also takes steps to allow the sale of lottery tickets of Government of Sikkim in the Karnataka State.

ORDER No. FD 80 KSL 70, BANGALORE, DATED THE 20TH DECEMBER 1973.

The Governor is pleased to order that the tickets of the lottery organised by Sikkim Government shall be allowed for sale in the State of Karnataka with immediate effect.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,
